Safe Hotline is an independent third party reporting service. All reports received will be submitted exactly as reported to your employer. The company has the sole discretion regarding whether or not any action is taken to resolve the issue. We will not disclose your identity without your permission, however your identity may be discovered during investigation and/or by the nature of the report and/or the documents submitted.

Safe Hotline is not an Emergency Hotline and should not be a substitute for calling 911 the police or other emergency services.
